

PENNARD

HILL FARM

BY ROAD TRAVELLING FROM LONDON OR THE NORTH

Take the M3 and then the A303. At Poddimore roundabout on the A303 take the A37 signposted to Shepton Mallet. After around 8.5 miles, you will see a sign for East Pennard and West Bradley on the left (the Queens Arms Public House is directly opposite this turning on the right). Carry along this road for 2.1 miles, ignore the first and second right turns, both signed East Pennard, and you will come to a crossroads. Turn right, signposted for Forgewell and Steanbow. Pennard Hill Farm is 1 mile on the right hand side on this lane. Drive over the cattle grid and we will be waiting for you at the farmhouse.

TRAVELLING FROM BRISTOL OR THE WEST

Take the A37 Wells Road for some 17 miles as it ducks and winds confusingly through several villages. After Shepton Mallet turn left onto the A361 (note getting through Shepton Mallet is a little tricky - turn left onto Charlton Road then left again onto Whitstone Road - follow signs for Glastonbury). Follow the A361 towards Glastonbury for a further 5 miles through the little village of Pilton towards West Pennard. After around 1 mile you will reach Stickleball Lane, which is the first road on the left hand side after Pilton. If you pass the Apple tree Pub you have gone too far. Drive up this narrow tree lined road climbing the hill for 1 mile and you will come to the Pennard Hill Farm entrance on your left hand side. Drive over the cattle grid and we will be waiting for you at the farmhouse.

TRAVELLING FROM SOUTHAMPTON AND THE SOUTH
